Media Release

Chamberlin officially joins council race as sole Independent candidate

May 4, 2011

Kyle Chamberlin has collected the signatures required to become the first Independent candidate on the ballot for a local office in over 80 years. The 26-year-old South Bend resident will join the primary-nominated Democratic and Republican candidates for South Bend Common Council, District Four on the general election ballot in November.

Chamberlin will officially file his petition of candidacy at 10:00 a.m. May 4 (Wednesday) in the St. Joseph County Clerk's office. He will be available for media interviews following the filing; additional availability may be scheduled by telephone at 574-904-9135 or email at info@kylechamberlin.com.

An attorney with experience in criminal prosecution and private practice, Chamberlin is currently a member of the University of Notre Dame faculty. He holds Bachelors of Business Administration and Juris Doctor degrees from the University of Notre Dame. A citizen member on the Common Council's PARC Committee, Chamberlin is active with the Young Professionals Network and the United Way of St. Joseph County. Additional information on his candidacy is available at www.sb4g.info.
